"After 3 years at the Newburgh Library, we've moved to a larger venue due to overflow attendance in 2007. Please join us for this important & exciting regional event."

Simon Gruber, Hudson Valley Regional Council

This event, our 4th regional conference, will feature leading designers, builders, developers, energy consultants, state officials and more.

- Presentations and discussion on cost-effective opportunities for advancing energy efficiency and green design in existing and new residential buildings.
- Case studies on a range of housing types and new information on emerging trends.
- Relevant for commercial and municipal sectors
- Key networking opportunities with industry leaders
- Exhibits of green building products, services and financing options.
- Visit www.occitizensfoundation.org for program and other details.
